AN AWFUL CRIME.

Two Children Thrown From a Precipice.

THE WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

Col. Carey Charged with Sac- rificing the French Prince

Full Particulars of Yesterday's Steamship Collision.

A Terrible Crime.

BUFFALO, Nov. 1.—One of the most terrible murders ever known in the history of Erie county was committed at Akron, twenty-four miles east of this city, last night. A young woman named Sarah McMullen, aged 19, residing with Mrs. Patrick Brown, enticed Della Brown, aged 6, and Nellie May Connors, aged 10, onto the Akron cement works' narrow-gauge road bridge, which is 65 feet above Murder creek, when all of a sudden she pushed Della Brown over the side of the bridge, and then grabbed Nellie Connors and hurled her from the precipice.
Nellie was instantly killed, and little Della Brown had her arms and legs broken, and although terribly bruised, it is thought she will recover.
Last night the citizens searched for the missing girls and found them at 2 o'clock this morning. For several hours Della laid on the stones at the side of the creek unable to move. It is believed that Sarah McMullen is crazy, as she subsequently threw herself into the stream from which she was rescued by a man passing at the time. She is in custody, but refuses to talk.

They Die Hard.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 1.—The new board of city officers went to their office a little earlier than the usual time for meeting this morning, accompanied by the Mayor. The office was locked, and there was only a clerk within, who on the request of the Mayor to open the door refused to do so. The Mayor directed an officer to force an entrance, and three kicks from a policeman's brogan opened the door. The inner door, which was also locked, was opened by sending a man through the transom. The board then elected a new clerk and discharged the assistant, who refused to give up his book of minutes. President Reemelin of the old board came in later and began to raise objections, but when Mayor Mosby told him he had no right to interfere with the business, he left the room. The other members of the old board acquiesced.

The Old Rate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Pursuant to the result of a meeting on Monday last, the increased tariff on express matter went into effect this morning.
The manager of the American Express says the rate has simply been put back to those charged in 1888.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The weekly bank statement shows a reserve increase of $826,850; specie decrease, $682,100; deposit decrease, $2,481,400.
The banks now hold $701,795 in excess of the requirement of the 25 per cent.
rule.)

Arrest of Rioters.

BERNE, Nov. 1.—Numerous arrests of rioters have been made at Lugano.
It is believed the turbulent Canton of Ticino will be divided into two.

Sixty-seven Lives Lost.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—It is now certain that twenty-seven lives were saved from the wrecked steamer Viz-caya. Word has been received from Delaware Breakwater that eight persons were saved and are now there.
Their names are not known.

A tug was sent this morning from Sandy Hook for the seven survivors taken off by the Marshall, and now on board that vessel.

The Ceballo representatives, who went with the tug after the seven survivors picked up by a pilot boat, have returned. They brought seven of the crew of the Vizcaya and one of the schooner's crew.

A dispatch received from Lewes, Del., says that Second Engineer Arthur Gueralda, Fourth Engineer Leopold Mediaralla, the boatswain, cook, a fireman and two sailors had arrived there, and also that the body of the stewardess of the Vizcaya had come ashore.

Second mate Walker of the schooner Cornelius Hargrave gives the following account of the collision: "I had just come on deck a few minutes before (Thursday evening), when I saw the Vizcaya five miles off. A green light shone on her port side. I did not feel the least uneasy, as our lights were burning and must have been plainly visible to those on board the Spaniard. We were sailing at the rate of eight knots an hour. The Spaniard was moving rapidly, and I turned a flare of light to show him a sailing vessel was near, but he held on his way, and I began to think we might strike him or he us if one of us did not alter our course. I was in charge of the deck, but finally called the Captain. When he came on deck he looked at the cloud of canvas on the Spanish steamer and then at our sails, all of which were set. 'We can clear her, I guess,' he said, and we held on our way. I watched the vessels drawing nearer, and finally ventured, 'I think we will strike them, Captain.' 'Yes, by God, we will.
Hard-a-port! Hard-a-port!' he shouted. But it was too late. Like a race horse our vessel darted forward and we struck the Vizcaya amid ship.

The Hargrave tore a great hole the Spaniard's side, and then the vessel swung slowly about until almost side by side, and then a chorus of agonized cries burst forth and men and women darted hither and thither on the steamship and jumped down on our decks, but our ship was so seriously wounded as their own.

"As Captain Allen heard the panic-stricken people dropping on our deck he shouted to me: 'Walker, keep them back; let's save our own crew first. To the boats, men, to the boats,' and he himself cut away the fastenings of the long boat and jumped in, and the first mate and three of our crew followed.

"In the meantime I was fighting a gang of Spaniards bent on getting into our boats. Suddenly I looked around and saw Allen shove off with four companions. His boat would have easily carried sixteen. I jumped into the rigging and shouted 'Captain, you are not going to desert your second mate, are you? For God's sake come back.' He shouted something in reply and I saw him waving his hand in farewell and knew the coward had made off, leaving the rest of his crew to perish."

Walker then told in a dramatic way of the struggles for life of the remaining ten men of the Hargrave's crew, and the crowd of Spaniards from the Vizcaya. Walker threw a plank overboard and followed it, a large number of persons clung to it, and it was capsized again and again, each time losing some of its freight of human life.
Finally the number was reduced to five. They lost strength gradually, and one by one let go and sunk into the depths leaving Walker alone.

Again and again he was washed overboard, but struggled back. He was fast losing his mind and consciousness when he saw Barnegat, and tried to paddle toward it, but drifted out to sea. Many vessels passed, but were too far away to see his signals. At 4 A. M. he fell in with a Spaniard who had a raft of spars and joined him, and soon after they were picked up by a tug. Total number rescued, 42; lost, 67.

LEWES (Del.), Nov. 1.—The survivors of the collision of the steamer Vizcaya and the schooner Cornelius Hargrave were brought here last night. The following is a list of their names:

From the Cornelius Hargrave—Captain J. F. Allen of Fall River, First Mate H. C. Perring of Philadelphia, and seamen Andrew Hansen of Boston, John Smith of England, George Durand of Philadelphia, John Anderson of Boston, Thorald Thoraldson of Norway, Harvey Gainer of Philadelphia, Hans M. Holmsen of Christiansburg, Norway.

From the Vizcaya—Arthur Gerald of Santander, Leopoldo Gediavilla of Cadiz, Angelo Escandon of Santander, Leandro Garcia of Bilbao, Andres Calbo of Pontevedra, Alonzo Barcia of Cadiz, Ramon Camana of Coruna,

A Cowardly Murder.

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.), Nov. 1.— Joseph Lewis, a cowboy of Apache county, was shot and instantly killed on Wednesday night by James Pipkin and Joseph Hatch. Pipkin's wife had left him, and in company with Lewis and another woman, was on her way to St. Johns. The two men followed the party, and, coming up to where Lewis and the women were in camp, they emptied the contents of their double-barrelled shotguns into the body of the man. The murderers then fled, but when the news was reported to the Sheriff, he set out with a posse of citizens and Deputy Hart and Ashton to run down the murderers.
Both Pipkin and Hatch have killed men before.

Overland Freight.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The severance of the relations between the Union Pacific road and its eastern connections, except the Chicago & Northwestern road, in the matter of billing freight through, went into effect to-day.
Freight, wherever it is possible, is being forwarded by other routes.
When not, it is billed only to Council Bluffs, Iowa, where it must be re-billed over the Union Pacific. This break applies to and from points between Omaha and Salt Lake and does not extend to coast freight. Consultations are going on between the officials, and the rupture may be mended.

A Town Burned.

PEORIA (Ill.), Nov. 1.—The business portion of the town of Chillicothe was almost entirely destroyed by fire last night. The fire originated in a livery stable, and spread rapidly in all directions. The telegraph and telephone offices were burned, and all communications are cut off. The loss is about $200,000, only partially insured. The buildings burned were mostly small stores, saloons and shops. Between thirty and forty buildings in all were totally destroyed.

Blaine in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Secretary Blaine arrived from Washington this afternoon and he received a great ovation. Later in the afternoon he appeared on the stage of the Academy of Music to address a Republican mass-meeting. The spacious building was crowded to the doors and hundreds were unable to gain admission.

Leaving Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The big packers of Armour, Swift & Morris have just purchased 40,000 acres of land at the foot of Lake Michigan, across the line in Indiana, and will move their establishments there. It is expected that 150,000 people will be moved there inside of five years.

Corner Stone Ceremonies.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The corner-stone of the Great Temple of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union was laid this afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. The building will be of granite, fifteen stories high, and will cost $1,100,000. Francis E.
Willard delivered the principal address.

Burned to Death.

GLENWOOD (Minn.), Nov. 1.—The Lake House, at Starbuck, was burned last night. Two children of the proprietor, E. F. Byhee, were burned to death, and two others were so badly burned that they are not expected to live.

Not All Probable.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—Count Harrisse's life of the Prince Imperial, published yesterday, insinuates that Lieut.
Carey was a political agent paid to get rid of the Prince in Zululand.

The Official Report.

ZANZIBAR, Nov. 1.—The official report states the British loss at the storming of Vitt, were four wounded, and the native loss was fifty killed,
and many wounded.

COAST DISPATCHES.

A Campaign Accident.

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 1.—While firing a salute in honor of ex-Governor Stanford last night, Milo G. McKee and John Hart were injured by the premature discharge of a cannon. McKee had both arms blown off, his face and head lacerated, and his eyesight destroyed. He is believed to be fatally injured. He is a plumber and tinner by trade. Hart was not seriously hurt.

A Reorganized Bank.

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 1.—The well-known and long established banking house of Rideout & Smith has incorporated under the name of the Rideout Bank, with N. D. Rideout as President. The old firm began business here in 1861.

A San Francisco Homicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—About 2 o'clock this morning the Coroner was notified that a murder had been committed on the corner of Fourteenth and Mission streets, and a deputy was sent to investigate the matter. John Bowen, a waiter in the Excelsior Restaurant, was stabbed and almost instantly killed by F. C. Beck, a waiter employed in the New Eastern Hotel.
The killing occurred in a saloon, and was the outcome of a dispute over a ten-cent drink. Bowen was stabbed in the left breast, and expired in a few minutes. Beck was placed under arrest, charged with murder.

Notes.

PORT TOWNSEND, Nov. 1.—The steamer Walla Walla, which had not been heard from since Wednesday night, when she left Nainamoo for sea, arrived last evening. Owing to a thick fog Captain Wallace had anchored his ship in St. George's Channel. She leaves for San Francisco to-day.

The steamer Haytian Republic came off the beach near Point Wilson, where she went during a fog, but sustained no injury, and is now on her way to San Francisco.

Got the Worst of It.

MODESTO (Cal.), Nov. 1.—This morning Seaton Boren was shot in the leg and beat over the head at Turlock by officer Spiers, while resisting arrest.
Boren had been drunk and quarrelsome all night, and when the officer attempted to arrest him he fortified himself behind a bar and commenced a fusillade of glasses and tumblers upon the officer. Boren was brought to the county hospital, where his injuries were pronounced not fatal.
Spiers is under arrest.

Died of a Broken Heart.

FRESNO, Nov. 1.—Mrs. J. L. Stillman, wife of the murderer of J. D.
Fiske, died at the County Hospital this morning. She bemoaned to the last the desperate act of her husband, and gradually expired from a loss of vitality. She leaves two small children. Stillman had not been informed of the death of his wife up to a late hour.

Opium Smuggling.

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—United States Customs Searchers Todd and Woodby seized 240 five-ounce cans of prepared opium on the steamer Olympian, which arrived at Port Townsend from Victoria, B. C. Night watchman
Adams was arrested on suspicion.

Went in His Resignation.

OLYMPIA (Wash.), Nov. 1.—John F.
Gowey, ex-Mayor of this city, who was recently appointed United States Consul to Tokio, Japan, has sent his resignation to the President on account of ill-health. Gowey is now in California for the benefit of his health.

The Seattle Water Works.

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—The Spring Hill Water Company has turned over its water works, and hereafter they will be operated by the city. The purchase price was $352,265.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

Bar silver, $1 05 3/4.

A New York dispatch says the Comte de Paris sailed for Liverpool
to-day.

A Washington dispatch says the President leaves for Indianapolis on Monday to vote.

Public Speaking.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

THE "Saloon-keepers' Protective Union" are inviting a war on themselves by attempting the defeat of Mon. A. E. Cheney for District Judge for his course in the Nevada Legislature on the "early closing" bill. No law ever enacted by a Nevada Legislature was fraught with better results than the early closing law, and we believe that we but voice the sentiment of the better class of saloon men when we say Cheney's course on that important question was just right. The low dives and deadfalls, which do their work after midnight, are the only ones really interested in its repeal, and they might just as well try to move Mount Davidson as expunge the law from the Nevada statutes. If the better class of liquor dealers do not see that the movement of the "Saloon-keepers' Protective Union" of Eureka is not sat upon they will be making a mistake, and only invite more pronounced opposition in the future.

The indications all are that a determined fight is being made all along the line in New York, Ohio and other States, the principal issue being the tariff bill. The determination of the country to sustain the Republican party in the advanced legislation, which has distinguished the action of the Republican party during the last session in conquering obstruction, increasing the value of silver and protecting the industries of the country, is apparent.

Nevada will be indeed ungrateful, beneficiary as she is of such legislation, if she fails to fall in line with the Republican majority. We appeal to the Republicans to stand by the ticket. This is no time for division.

Particularly is it important that the head of the ticket should be elected, as the character of the victory is always determined by this.

Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt, in laying down the rule which prevails regarding contributions to political campaign funds by Government employees within the classified service, sets at rest the sensational reports which have been recently spread regarding the assessment of department clerks, and movements to compel them to go home and vote the Republican ticket. No one familiar with the matter would take any stock in such reports, but Democratic campaign statements are calculated to take effect chiefly among persons who are not well informed on that or any other subject.

BILLY CAUGHLIN, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, has been a many warm friends among the Democrats as he has among the Republicans. Coughlin has lived here for twenty years and is well and favorably known to every man, woman and child in the town. He is temperate, square as a die, never went back on a friend, belongs to no clique or ring, and is in every way better qualified for the office than his opponent, who has held the office for four years without making a record.

LOOKING at it from a business standpoint, why should any Republican vote the Democratic ticket? Tuesday's election will tell the tale whether the people are true to their interests or not; whether they want to cast their lot with the party of progress and build up a State worthy the name, or whether they want to block the wheels of progress and continue in the same well-worn channel that we are now in.

A VOTE for Fletcher means a vote for a man thoroughly competent to perform the important duties of the Assessor's office. He is well up in values, and no one understands them better. He is impartial and honest, and everybody will get a square deal if he is elected.

THE attempt of one or two lottery men to down Hon. R. R. Bigelow for Supreme Judge should be resented by all good citizens, who should take it upon themselves to see that he is not defeated for his manly course on that question last winter.

The Great Spring Medicine.
It will be gratifying to all who realize the vital necessity of purifying the blood, to know that Hubbard's Rheumatic Syrup can be relied upon as a blood medicine. Mr. B. C. Robinson, of Marshall, Mich., says: "GENTLEMEN—I have suffered intensely from biliousness and rheumatism for over three years and had tried so many remedies that I had lost all faith. Hearing of Hubbard's Rheumatic Syrup I bought a bottle and found it helped me. I have now used four bottles, and it has restored my liver and kidneys to healthy action, and done more to purify my blood than anything I have ever taken. I am pleased to recommend it as a wonderful blood medicine."
Yours very truly,
B. C. Robinson, Marshall, Mich.

A Cure for Sick Headache.
This distressing complaint is due to an inactive or sluggish liver with constipated bowels which derange the stomach and disturb the nervous system, causes dizziness and an oppressive dull pain in the head, often so severe as to prevent all rest or sleep. One of Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills will relieve you of all the pain and misery and a few more doses will correct the liver and stomach and regulate the bowels. While these pills are small, easily taken, and mild and gentle in their action there is no medicine made that will so effectively cure sick headache.
Box. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

A Sure Cure for Piles.
Itching Piles are known by moisture, like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. See Druggists or mail, treatise free. Dr. Bosanko, Piqua, O. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

To the Voters of Washoe County.

CERTAIN MEMBERS OF OUR LAST Legislature, who voted to fasten upon this State the infamous lottery scheme, which cost the honest taxpayers $20,000 to defeat, and which has done more to injure the property of Nevada than all the evils which have occurred in its history, are now before the public soliciting their suffrage, among the number being M. D. Foley, one of the nominees for State Senator for Washoe County. Who was the strongest advocate of the lottery bill in the Senate. Understanding that Mr. Foley desires siding it, we hereby submit a copy of the Senate Journal of January 18, 1890:

Senate Bill No. 12.—An Act to provide for holding a special election to submit to the people of the State proposed amendments to the constitution thereof, and other matters pertaining thereto. Bill read and passed by following vote: Yeas—Messrs. Egan, Connelley, Dunlop, M. D. Foley, Forbes, Gallagher, Harris, Kaiser, Millett, Nicholas, Osburn, Sawyer, Sharon, Sprinkle, Torre, Williams—16. Nays—Messrs. Emmitt, Hardy and La Grave.
Fellow citizens, can such men be trusted to legislate in the interests of the people. Elect them, and may not another lottery scheme or some other jobbery that will line their pockets at your expense be serving any hour. It is safe only to vote for reliable men.

Scrofula

In Its Worst Form—"White Swelling" Cured.
The remarkable effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the following case illustrates the power of this medicine over all blood diseases:
"My son, 7 years old, had a white swelling come on his right leg below the knee, which contracted the muscles so that his leg was drawn up at right angles. Physicians lanced the swelling, which discharged freely, but did not help him materially. I considered him A Confirmed Cripple.
I was about to take him to Cincinnati for an operation, expecting his leg would have to be taken off, and began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla in order to get up his strength. The medicine woke up his appetite, and soon pieces of bone were discharged from the sore. We continued with Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it seemed to be doing him so much good, and the discharge from the sore decreased, and the swelling went down, the leg straightened out, and in a few months he had perfect use of his leg. He is now apparently as well as ever." JOHN L. McMURRAY, Notary Public, Ravenswood, W. Va.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Recognizing the true worth and straightforward manner in which the Democratic State Convention, held in Reno, September 15, 1890, presented to the people its platform, and the completeness of its scope, we reassert the principles therein contained, and endorse it as a part of the platform of this Convention.
We lay special stress upon the doctrine of the election of honest and capable citizens of the State and county to office; of securing a free and intelligent exercise of the ballot; of restraining corporate abuses and usurpations; of adjusting the taxation, and of perpetuating the fair and honorable name of Washoe county.

We utterly repudiate the idea that to be successful in sustaining our principles we should bow down and worship the golden calf.
In particular we endorse the Democratic State platform in denouncing the present ill-advised and impracticable law passed by a Republican Legislature, requesting the use of waste water for irrigation, and for acting the priority of right thereto, and demand the repeal thereof.
We pledge the nominees of this Convention to the economical and honest administration of the offices of both State and county.

JOTTINGS.

Give your family a nice treat tomorrow by taking them to the Riverside for their Sunday dinner.

Examine C. A. Thurston's stock of every variety of blank books, pens and pencil tablets and both copying and writing inks.

E. C. Leadbetter carries no second-class groceries as you will see by an examination of his stock, and he is selling at bed-rock prices.

Strangers who stop at the new Phoenix are of the opinion that the same accommodations would not be had anywhere for the same money.

To-morrow being Sunday, J. J. Becker will furnish his friends with an extra fine meal of Boston baked beans, brown bread and other palatable edibles.

C. J. Brookins' variety store is the place to buy your violin, guitar and banjo strings; also all kinds of musical instruments, from a harmonica to a chattering piano.

Instead of trying to deceive yourself by making over your old hat or bonnet, patronize Miss Emma Gibbs for a new one, which will cost but very little more.

Sarsaparilla and Iron water and Orangeine by the dozen or case, the only genuine from Schmidt & Co., Stockton, Cal. at H. J. Thyes, State agent, trade and families supplied.

If you want to see as well constructed, neatly appointed and in the kept a hotel as was ever opened in the State, do not fail to visit the Clarendon, which is first-class in every particular except price.

Under the management of W. T. Craig, the new proprietor, the Arcade Hotel and Restaurant continues to sustain its reputation as being first-class in every respect. It contains nice airy rooms, good beds and as palatable meals as you ever sat down to in the town.

"Is this the best?" Is the question often asked, when medicine is wanted. The following are a few of the medicines of known reliability, sold by Shoemaker & Co., druggist at this place. They have many other excellent medicines, but these are worthy of special mention:

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of severe colds, and as a preventive for croup. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm, a general family liniment and especially valuable for rheumatism. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, the most reliable known medicine for bowel complaints. It is especially prized by persons subject to colic. It has cured many cases of chronic diarrhoea. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

St. Patrick's Pills or disorders of the liver and bowels; a vigorous but gentle physic that cleanses and renovates the whole system. Price 25 cts. per box.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. For tetter, salt rheum, scald-head, eczema and chronic sore eyes. Price 25 cents.

A Safe Investment.

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggists a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of Throat, Lungs or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping cough, croup, and etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to take, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon.

Try bottles free at Wm. Fininger's Drug-Gist.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merit. Wm. Fininger's Drug-Gist.

The question has been asked, "In what respect are St. Patrick's Pills better than any other?" Try them. You will find that they produce a pleasant cathartic effect, are more certain in their action, and that they not only physic but cleanse the liver and bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by Shoemaker & Co.

The Place to Buy.

A. Nelson, of the Free Intelligence Office, Virginia street, carries a fine stock of the best tobaccos, Havana and Key West cigars, notions, cutlery goods, underwear, overalls, buckskin gloves, suspenders and Dr. "Willey's" Discovery.

Improved digestion and assimilation produce disordered conditions of the system which grew and are confirmed by neglect. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, by its tonic properties, cures indigestion and gives tone to the stomach. $1.50 a bottle.

Fryer's Abolition, nature's remedy, obtained by distilling and exudation from the aboriginal time tree found only in the Sierras of California. C. B. King of Stockton, Cal., says: "I have used Abolition for cuts, scalds, burns, bruises, etc., found it efficacious in every instance." The genuine and original bears the fac-simile signature of D. F. FRYER. Sold by Wm. Fininger.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

The Big Blow-Out of the Campaign.

Carson Represented by Fully Three Hundred and Fifty People.

The streets were ablaze last night from 7 o'clock until 9:30 with flames, bonfires, sky-rockets, quick fire and bonfires, and presented a most brilliant appearance, the occasion being a political demonstration gotten up by the Republicans. The Young Men's Republican Club, the Colored Club and the Young Foley Club, assisted by over 300 people from Carson, made the welkin ring. It was 9:30 before the crowd finally got settled in the Opera House.

Dr. A. Dawson called the vast assemblage to order, and invited the following gentlemen to seats on the stage. Among them were representatives from Virginia City, Gold Hill, Empire, Carson, Washoe, Verdi, Reno and Battle Mountain, viz.:

Governor Bell, Evan Williams, T. R. Hofer, Harry Gorham, W. O. H. Martin, G. W. Baker, A. D. Martin, E. T. George, William Thompson, J. P. Woodbury, Ferd Reid, T. B. Rickey, W. D. Phillips, C. C. Warner, C. C. Powning, M. D. Foley, J. F. Alexander, George Holeworth, Judge Eigelow, C. D. Van Duzer, L. D. Folson, J. S. Shoemaker, C. A. Bragg, C. H. Hamill, O. Loukey, Hume Yerington, Dr. Thomas, A. Ardery, J. P. Foulks, J. Corecco, C. F. Bicknell, R. H. Hussey, S. J. Hodgkinson, Sol Levy, G. F. Turrittin, Dr. Wagar, Louis Dean, A. A. Evans, D. C. Wheeler, G. W. Peckham, W. H. Gould, Harry Baker, Ray Baker, the members of the Glee Club and GAZETTE reporters.

After a song by the Glee Club Dr. Dawson introduced the first speaker, J. A. Stephens of Virginia, who proceeded at once in his usual vigorous manner, and said that Senator John P. Jones and himself came not to influence Republicans, because it was not needed, but to convert Democrats.

He briefly reviewed the silver question and alluded glowingly to the proposition for the reclamation of the arid lands and derided the idea of sending Cassidy to Congress to work with Senators Stewart and Jones in fulfilling Democratic promises.

He showed the futility of Cassidy's efforts to return to Congress after being snowed under by Woodburn and again by Bartine, and asking "What's the matter with Bartine?" was answered by a deafening yell from the vast audience. "He's all right," and he capped the climax in the apostrophe: "Oh, Democracy! Thou art as inconsistent as the devil!" once the poor man's party, now ransacking the byways for the richest men to run for office. He closed by extolling the Republican party and predicting its continuance until the republic expands to include all the territory from Alaska to the Panama canal. Mr. Stephens retired amidst loud applause, and after music by the band the President introduced

SENATOR JOHN P. JONES.

He began by eulogizing Washoe county for its friendship to him, and then gave a most interesting history of the silver legislation. Lack of space prevents the GAZETTE from giving his remarks in full. He predicts that free coinage will follow within two years from now and that it will be followed by increased and continuous prosperity for Nevada. He claims that only free coinage will produce a home market for Nevada and that the reclamation of arid lands will be unavailing until the mines furnish a home market for increased farm products.

He claimed that the Republicans kept every pledge made in the platform that Harrison was nominated on, and then reviewed at length the tariff act and the benefits that followed protection. He eulogized labor and showed how the Democrats would degrade it by cheapening all our products by free trade, which meant low wages and the crushing out of humanity. He held that labor was sacred and that the pleasure of life is in labor. He briefly reviewed the history of the Republican party that came into power when the Treasury was empty, and when it went out they left the Democrats with nothing to contend with, except a handsome surplus in the Treasury.

He closed with a review of the State ticket, and urged all to stand by the party of protection and its nominees, and predicted that the next ten years would be red letter years in the history of the republic; urged on all the need of standing by the party that plighted the country safely through from the free-trade laws of 1853 to the prosperity of the present.

It was late when the Senator closed, and, after a song by the glee club, the President introduced Hon. J. Poujade, nominee for Lieutenant-Governor, who, briefly stating the hour was late, very graciously dismissed the audience, eo instanti.

The Carlton Opera Company.

The performance of the brilliant opera "The Brigands" by the Carlton Opera Company on Thursday next will contain a specially gratifying feature. Miss Jeannie Winston will by special request sing during the third act her lovely ballad, "My Love is Like the Red, Red Rose," and others of her famous Scotch songs. Miss Winston's singing of these songs recently in San Francisco made such a success that she was unanimously accepted as the "Queen of ballad singers." It will be a most delightful addition to the already fascinating and charming music of "The Brigands," and one that none should miss.

For sick headache, female troubles, nervous pain in the head, Dr. J. H. McLean's Little Liver and Kidney Pills, 25 cents a box.

WOMAN'S INTUITION.

Nearly Always Right in Her Judgment in regard to Common Things.

An old gentleman over seventy, came into the city from his farm, without his overcoat. The day turned chilly and he was obliged to forego his visit to the fair.

To a friend who remonstrated with him for going away from home thus unprepared, he said: "I thought it was going to be warm; my wife told me to take my overcoat, but I wouldn't. Women have more sense than men anyway."

A frank admission. Women's good sense is said to come from intuition; may it not be that they are more close observers of little things. One thing is certain, they are apt to strike the nail on the head, in all the ordinary problems of life, more frequently than the lords of creation.

According to Dr. Alice Bennett, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to bilious attacks and sick headaches, who have crawling sensations, like the flowing of water in the head, who are "tired all the time" and have unexplained attacks of sudden weakness, may well be suspected of dangerous tendencies in the direction of Bright's disease.

The veteran newspaper correspondent, Joe Howard of the New York Press, in noting this statement, suggests: "Probably Alice is correct in her diagnosis, but why doesn't she give some idea of treatment? I know a man who has been 'tired all the time' for ten years. Night before last he took two doses of calomel and yesterday he wished he hadn't."

A proper answer is found in the following letter of Mrs. Davis, wife of Rev. Wm. J. Davis of Esail, O., June 21, 1890:

"I do not hesitate to say that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. I had a constant hemorrhage from my kidneys for more than five months. The physicians could do nothing for me. My husband spent hundreds of dollars and I was not relieved. I was under the care of the most eminent medical men in the State. The hemorrhage ceased before I had taken one bottle of the Safe Cure. I am safely and do cheerfully recommend it to all who are sufferers of kidney troubles."

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Edward Dukes Killed at Bijou, Lake Tahoe.

The Genoa Courier of the 31st ult. says: A fatal accident occurred at Bijou at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. Edward Dukes, brakeman on one of the trains, was helping to raise a saw-log so as to roll it from the car on the wharf into the lake. The jack slipped and he lost his balance and fell into the lake where the water was about seven feet deep. A moment after he fell the log plunged into the lake, and probably struck him as he came to the surface. A minute later his lifeless body was rescued from the bottom of the lake with a pole-pole. The ribs and face were badly crushed and bruised.

Ted Dolan and Wm. Parsons came to Genoa Wednesday night for a coffin. The remains will likely be taken to Sacramento for burial.

Edward Dukes was a native of El Dorado county, Cal., aged 27 years. He was a step-brother of Mrs. Rudolph Seaman of Genoa, and his father now resides in Sacramento. For eight years past he had been employed about the mouth end of the lake, where he had won the respect and esteem of his acquaintances.

A Remote Complimented.

Under the heading of "A pleasing Address," the Silver State of the 31st ult. contained the following: "C. A. Jones, the young lawyer of Reno, is reported as having made a speech on the water question in Paradise last night. In which he interested just enough politics to make it spicy, which delighted his hearers, irrespective of party."

Death of Ned Bridges.

The Lassen Mail contains the following account of the death of an old Renoite: Mr. Ned Bridges, after a brief illness, died at the Johnston House last Tuesday evening. Typhoid pneumonia was the cause of death. Mr. Bridges, although almost a stranger here, coming from San Francisco some six months ago, in the employ of Hutchinson & Leavitt as a civil engineer, has won many friends by his affable, genial and courteous manner. The funeral took place Thursday and his remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of friends.

CHURCH NOTICES.

BAPTIST CHURCH—Regular services at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening at 11 and 7. Sunday School at 12:15 p. m. Everybody made welcome.

Greatest Orator.

Last great speech of the campaign. Everybody come and hear Major George A. Hilton at the Opera House next Monday evening, November 3d.

A Disease Unaccountably Prevalent.

The prevalence of numerous ailments attributable to miasmatic poison in the air that people breathe, and the water they drink, is well nigh unaccountable. Not alone in pestilential swamps, badly drained suburban districts, and marshes exposed to the sun's rays by the receding tide, is this scourge of humanity found. Even in great cities, healthfully located, skillfully sewered, well looked after in every respect in a sanitary way, we find malarial disease is often inexplicable, but its attacks are always preventable. The protector is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It cures the miasmatic disease, a name known to thousands throughout our broad land and elsewhere as a synonym of relief, prevention and cure of the insidious disorders in its abominable phases—chills and fever, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, acid eructa, as well as others. Nor is the Bitters less effective for indigestion, indolence, flatulency, biliousness and rheumatism.

The Best External Remedy.

S. J. Tidwell, Haley's, Marion county, Alabama, writes: "Allcock's Pore-Plaster is a most valuable household remedy. They do all that is claimed for them. I sell many hundreds every year, and every day I hear of them curing coughs and colds, diseases of the spine, liver and ague cake; in fact, there is no disease that can be reached by an external application that they do not cure."

Be wary of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentations. Ask for Allcock's, and let no application or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Allcock's Corn and Bunion Shields effect quick and certain relief.

Last evening a boy by the name of Eddie Kelley, who was on the Carson special train, came near being killed at Steamboat by trying to board the moving train, but luckily escaped with a few bruises.

A RUNAWAY.

Dan Huffaker Thrown From His Buggy at the Sierra Street Crossing.

Last evening about 5:30 o'clock, as Dan Huffaker was about starting home, he got into his buggy behind a spirited horse, in front of Hyman's stable. His lines were not buckled and he dropped one, when the frightened animal started up Sierra street at a wild pace, crossing the railroad track, where the vehicle careened, throwing Mr. Huffaker violently to the ground. He immediately regained his feet, but complained of having hurt his back in the fall. The horse continued on in his mad flight down Plaza street and turned into Virginia street at the Grand Central Hotel corner. Leaving the buggy a perfect wreck, the horse kept on, and at last accounts was making good time northward.

Death of Ned Bridges.

The Lassen Mail contains the following account of the death of an old Renoite: Mr. Ned Bridges, after a brief illness, died at the Johnston House last Tuesday evening. Typhoid pneumonia was the cause of death. Mr. Bridges, although almost a stranger here, coming from San Francisco some six months ago, in the employ of Hutchinson & Leavitt as a civil engineer, has won many friends by his affable, genial and courteous manner. The funeral took place Thursday and his remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of friends.

A Fine Stock at Low Prices.

Attention is called to the advertisement of General C. W. Borton of the Opera House Dry Goods Store, on the second page of to-day's GAZETTE. The General is a rustler from away back and knows how to cater to the fancies of the ladies in the dry goods line. He also carries an immense stock of men's and boys' clothing, and is selling goods dirt cheap. Give the Opera a call.

"A GROWL."

MR. EDITOR: Although my taxes are small, yet they are as burdensome to me as if I paid much more. And as a taxpayer, I feel that I have a right to criticize those extravagances that are factors in the creation of high taxes. I have in my mind the county hospital. No sooner does the impetuous citizen become broken down and debilitated, than he rushes off to the hospital. Even persistent dyspepsia and constipation are getting to be excuses for admission. Hence, allow me space to enter my feeble protest against further continuance of this pernicious practice. It costs too many hard dollars for the treatment of these unfortunate, and it is high time that they should know that they can save the county that expense, by the judicious use of a few bottles of Jory's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.—a remedy that within my observation is a sovereign cure for those too common disorders. If they won't take it they ought to be compelled to by some law that would meet the case. Under the circumstances a full hospital is unnecessary.—hence this growl.
